

2026 SLATE OF OFFICERS

Steve Burdine
Elder

Steve and his family originally joined The Kirk in 2002 and were actively involved until moving to Colorado in 2011. After returning to Oklahoma in 2023, they rejoined The Kirk and now live in Muskogee. Steve sings regularly in the choir and, along with his wife Jenny, has participated in the medical mission trip to Costa Rica for the past two years, with plans to return again soon. They have three adult children. Steve works as a freelance software engineer.

Kevin Cain
Elder

Kevin has been a member of The Kirk for four years and currently serves as a leader with the Young Family Connection. He also serves on the prayer team, which is available following Sunday morning services. Kevin is married to his wife Amy, and together they have two adult children. He enjoys snow skiing, playing board games, and watching football. Kevin values building relationships and serving the church community.

Missy Little Finance Elder

Missy has been attending The Kirk for eight years and has served in a variety of leadership roles. She spent six years as a youth leader, has served as a youth deacon, and is currently serving as an elder while also participating in the prayer ministry. Missy is a retired CPA and has been married to her husband Blake for 36 years. They have two grown children and are enjoying life as grandparents. In her free time, Missy loves playing tennis and golf.

Laura Rogerson
Elder

Laura Rogerson grew up at The Kirk and was confirmed here before spending her adult years in South Carolina. After returning to Tulsa six years ago, she immediately rejoined the church and became actively involved. Laura helps lead the Better Together group, serves on the Hospitality Committee with the coffee bar and communion, and has recently helped facilitate the Divorce Care class. She is a registered nurse and is currently semi-retired. Laura has five children, nine grandchildren living in South Carolina and Illinois, and enjoys traveling, including visits to Australia to see her daughter and son-in-law.

2026 SLATE OF OFFICERS

MaryBeth Alley
Deacon - Care
& Concern

MaryBeth Alley has been a lifelong member of The Kirk and has served the church in many leadership roles over the years. She previously served as an elder and as Director of Kirk Preschool for eight years. MaryBeth met and married her husband Tom at The Kirk, and together they have one son, Blake. She enjoys spending time with family and friends, participating in Bible study, and volunteering with organizations such as Reading Partners and Iron Gate.

Marcia Bursinger
Deacon - Widows

Marcia Bursinger became a member of The Kirk in 2006 and has faithfully served in the Widows' Ministry for several years. As both a widow and the Deacon of the Widows' Ministry, she finds deep meaning and fulfillment in walking alongside other widows. Marcia also serves on the Hospitality Committee and leads a small group where widows connect through fellowship, laughter, and Bible study. She is grateful for the opportunity to serve and prays for God's continued guidance in her ministry with the widows of The Kirk.

Susy Collins
Deacon - Prayer

Susana "Susy" Collins was born and raised in Mexico, where she became a Christian at age 15 and began serving in youth leadership, church ministry, and church planting. Over the years, she has served in a variety of roles including childcare, teaching, and missions. Susy and her husband Todd were married in Mexico and have been married for 36 years; they later moved to Oklahoma. They have two children and two young grandsons. Susy and Todd were also guardians to their nephew and niece for many years. Susy has been attending The Kirk for two years and is now a member.

Crystal Fulda
Deacon - Special
Needs

Crystal Fulda and her husband Barry joined The Kirk around 1995 and have been active members ever since. In the early 2000s, Crystal began volunteering in the special needs ministry and later joined the staff, serving as Director of the Kirk Community of Friends ministry until 2019. She continues to volunteer with Faithful Buds on Sunday evenings and Special Buds on Sunday mornings. Crystal and Barry also serve together in the Care and Concern Ministry, and Crystal attends The Well on Monday mornings. They are the parents of three grown sons and proud grandparents of seven grandchildren.
